Vera Wang traditional wedding dresses are a manifestation of timelessness. They are founded upon the rich ocean of fashion from time immemorial that has evolved with the female body, traditional Vera Wang wedding dresses are a celebration and tribute to the timelessness of true style and sophistication. This Vera Wang dress will fulfill all of the values that you want to convey..

You are making sacred vows in your family's faith and want to convey the message that you will carry on the family traditions that you hold so dear. This is the day you have been fantasizing about ever since you learned about weddings, perhaps you went to a wedding as a girl or stumbled upon an old wedding dress and the energy of that event has been playing in your mind ever since.

You want to satisfy all of your grooms needs including that of his need to honor you. As for decoration, your choice is unique because you prefer hand-tied bows, fabric-covered buttons, delicate lace trims or subtle embroidery. Just like the matriarchs who preceded you through the ceremony before you, you want the little girls to remember the dress so that they can dream too.

A Vera Wang wedding dress is a contemporary art piece by design and ergonomic by fit. She will blend different fabrics such as silk, satin, chiffon, silk crepe, faille and Radzmere providing the elegance that you demand. There is no need to worry about losing your sensuality in this symphony of styles because it is in the crescendo of the sum of its parts that radiate through. Vera Wang wedding dresses shouldn't be seen by the groom before the wedding day, not because of superstition but rather because they won't be able to resist you.
